For a moment the two men glared at each other. And then Shand, with the self-command and cloquence that had made him a leader among the workmen, quickly made his plea for justice, "We come to you, Mr. Powers, because we realize that you do not know what the men have suffered. We know that f you had realized the awful tyranny of your underlings, conditions would have been improved long ago. We ask you to take the men back under proper working conditions. His feet shuffled and seemed too heavy for him to lift.
"Your husband's been hurt, ma'am," said one of the men, as guided by Mina, they half dragged, half carried the injured man to the scantily furnished bedroom and propped their stricken comrade in the shabby bed.

The happenings of the next few hours were as a dream to Mina. She had a hazy recollection that one of the men had selled the kindly faced and gentle

But Mina Hurd was not the only one to whom these words had sent their hor-rible portent. Through the throbbing of rible portent. Through the throbbing of Hurd's battered 'temples, through the half paralyzed numbness of his brain they penetrated to his aubconscious understanding, and made him realize the awfulness of the poverty they foretold. Followed days and weeks of desperate struggle for Mina, while Hurd slowly recovered his strength. Sitting impotent in his chair, the injured stevedore watched his frail and faithful wife grow frailer with each succeeding day. Each stitch of her needle was a separate anguish to him. Each time the bit of sharpened steel of her needle was a separate anguish to him. Each time the bit of sharpened steel entered the cloth it was as if it penetrated his soul. Small wonder he resolved, while sitting there, that Jake Snyder and his millionaire employer would pay—pay dearly for this tragedy of tyrauny and toil in which he and his little family were playing the leading roles.
